

Dear sir im against the proposed development for the mentioned lot above .The destruction of the the trees on this allotment is home to a number off bird varieties an possums .when we bought here the developer [...] said that it will never be built on as council said there was preservation order on the trees .i would like to know why this preservation order was or is about to be overturned .i would like a explantion for this yours sincerely