

Approval is not being sought to override the previous plans, but rather, to insert and reference the new additional plans in addition to the previously approved set.

As such, the approved conditions package is not considered relevant to this application.