

Good afternoon,

Please find attach timestamped evidence regarding building and excavation works carried out during the paused information response period as consideration upon assessing the development application since works were carried out without approval.

In accordance with legislation, building works carried out without approval is considered unlawful.

Regards,